FEATURED TESTIMONY

CHOOSING THE UNQUALIFIED

By Pastor Jacqueline Bweyame

I was born in the small beautiful continent of Eastern African in the country that Winston Churchill called “the Pearl of Africa.” My family was typical of a lot of African families then, in that it was a polygamous family. I grew up in a fairly loving environment though not perfect. I was doted on by my dad, and in my formative years, he was the one constant person in my life. Ours was a religious family that attended church every Sunday without fail. I even went to a convent school and was one of two students who led prayers in school every morning at 5 AM, though I cannot say that I knew the LORD at that time or have a living relationship with Him.

From quite a young age, I started having spiritual experiences/visitations that I would relate to my dad every time they happened. Basically, something would come in the night and tell me to tell my dad to take me to my grandma. The moment I informed him, he would straightaway drive me to my grandma's, and she would know exactly what to do with me when we got there as she would have consulted the oracle and received instructions of what to do before we even arrived. In addition to the visitations, different elders had expectations from me, which I could not understand at the time, but later learnt that this was because of the fact that I had been a subject of some spiritual dedications. In terms of my education and behavioural performance, this was often judged in comparison to my school friends. So, I developed what I call “performance orientation syndrome.” This meant that I behaved accordingly to please different individuals, which had an effect on who I am.

As a teenager, I became quite rebellious and broke every possible rule, which greatly affected my grades from an (A) student to a much lower grade. As I got older, the desire to succeed and make my Dad proud became heightened in my life, and I did succeed and made him proud of me. However, with this success came what started off as my believed responsibilities and desire to help others in my family but, later this became obligatory. My inability to always fulfil what people expected from me often brought negative reactions, which in turn put me in an uncomfortable emotional state. At this point in my life, I had become what you would call a Christian, but I was so broken inside and struggled with my identity due to all the above experiences. I remember relating to God as to an earthly father, doing everything possible to please Him, yet so desperate for His love and acceptance unconditionally. I desperately wanted to know that I qualified for His love.

In the midst of my emotional challenges and everything that was going on in my life, I became engaged to be married. However, I learnt soon after my engagement that I had been dedicated as a child to mountain gods worshipped by my family/clan and this issue of dedication began causing me problems. I started having frequent negative spiritual experiences in dreams and as a result, I was told by the people I confided in at that time that the only solution to all my problems was to go for deliverance.

My quest for deliverance placed me on an eye-opening journey of discovery. On this discovery journey, I visited so many churches. I met with several professed men and women of God who prayed for me and took me through all manners of religious activities, all in the name of deliverance, but none of them ever foundationally addressed the issue of my purpose. I went round and round in circles as the whole focus of the deliverance was on solving the natural problems when what I really needed all along was a breakthrough in the spirit realm so that I could march forward in my spiritual life. In the midst of my roundabout journey of searching for deliverance, I ended up losing everything that I had worked so hard for including my house and job.

To God be the glory, He used my misfortune to set me on His right path of eternal life fortunes. Right in the midst of my helpless situation, God opened the eyes of my understanding to the realities of the spiritual realm and to his unconditional love for me. He used my hopeless situations to awaken me to my purpose and healed my soul by establishing me in Him and bringing me into the understanding of my identity which is rooted in Him. He actually uprooted me from the foundation of the flesh and placed me in His foundation of righteousness. By His grace, He led me to the church where I am now serving as one of the pastors. He opened doors of ministry for me to teach, preach and empower people in the UK and in East Africa working with prostitutes, young people to bring them to Christ, and reaching out to village churches.

If you are reading this today, and you happen to find yourself in the position I was in or wondering whether you qualify for God's love and whether He can use you, I hope you will take heart and be inspired to earnestly seek God like never before from reading my testimony. I was born illegitimate, dedicated to serve a different god, was rebellious and ended up completely broken and unqualified for God's love and mercy. Yet in His mercy and favour for my life, He qualified me and made me acceptable in the beloved. He will do the same for you.

You may ask, but what qualifies me? Scripture tells us that: All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God (Roman 3:23).

Every human being as a descendant of Adam is born a sinner and a slave to the Devil. Therefore, we are all in need of God's salvation and deliverance from the sinful foundation of the first man Adam. The disobedient acts that we engage in are evidence of the sinful nature of man. God set a spiritual law in place as we read in Hebrews 9:22:

“[In fact] under the Law almost everything is purified by means of blood, and without the shedding of blood there is neither release from sin and its guilt nor the remission of the due and merited punishment”.

The merited punishment attributed to sin is separation from God, and death of the spirit man. As sinners, we all partook in this punishment following the fall of the first man Adam into sin. However, as we read further on in Roman 3:24-26:

“All are justified and made upright and in right standing with God freely and gratuitously by His Grace [His unmerited favour and mercy], through the redemption which is provided in Christ Jesus whom God put forward [before the eyes of all] as a mercy-seat and propitiation by His Blood [the cleansing and life-giving sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation, to be received] through faith. This was to show God's righteousness because in His divine forbearance He passed over and ignored former sins without punishment. It was to demonstrate and prove at the present time that He Himself is righteous and that He justifies and accepts as righteous him who has [true] faith in Jesus”.

What qualifies us all for forgiveness of our sins and reconciliation with God is the blood of Jesus. It is only by the blood of Jesus that our sins can be forgiven by God and only through God's forgiveness can we escape the due punishment of sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). In order to be forgiven, we have to accept that we are sinners and that Jesus took the punishment that we were due when He died on the cross at Cavalry. Then, truly repent from the heart of our sins and sinful nature in the belief that the blood of Jesus is sufficient to cleanse us (Psalm 51). Only then would we be justified and made righteous as the Scriptures above indicate. It is only the blood of Jesus Christ that qualifies us. Understanding this fact is the only means of beginning our eternal life journey with God.

Perhaps as you are reading this today, you are thinking that deliverance is all a lie invented by the church to steal from the vulnerable. You might have come to this conclusion because you have ended up hurt, deceived and abused by those you trusted and believed to be genuine women and men of God in your quest for deliverance. I urge you to take heart and don't give up on God because of what man has done to you. As a person who has experienced genuine deliverance first-hand, I can honestly say without a doubt that deliverance is real.

I have come to learn, that the key to our deliverance is to seek God for who He is and not for what we want Him to give us in our here and now, temporary, natural life existence. I can assure you that if you genuinely seek Jesus with a repentant heart, He will surely deliver you from every sinful foundation by the power of His blood just as He delivered me.

God delivers us for a purpose and the purpose of our deliverance is to serve His heavenly purpose for our lives on earth. We find our purpose in God when we seek Him with a mindset of relationship and not in the mindset of Him solving our earthly problems as, when and how we desire for Him to. We need understanding to serve our purpose and understanding comes through our step by step regeneration deliverance process from our stubborn flesh nature.

Our regeneration process begins when we are born again and from being born again, uprooted from the foundation of flesh and rooted in the foundation of righteousness. Once we become born again, we then need to feed on the Word of God to renew our minds and mature in our spirit man. It is only from feeding on the right Word of God, that you will grow in your understanding. You need understanding and boldness in declaring the Word of God in order to continually stand in sonship authority and dominion against every contrary evil foundation of sin and unrighteousness that you were once knowingly or unknowingly a partaker of before you became born again through the blood of Jesus.

Regeneration takes place through our stage by stage journey of faith with the Holy Spirit of God. And to grow and mature in the understanding of your liberty in Christ, it is important that you seek God to order your footsteps to His chosen elect and ministry founded in His own righteous foundation. You need to be under the right anointing and continually receive the right counsel and teachings of the Word of God in order for you to mature in your faith and fulfil God's entire purpose for your life.

The LORD is not against you having the fruit of the womb, the husband you so much desire, financial breakthrough, etc. However, He wants you to first and foremost seek His kingdom and not make the things of this world your life's priority (Matthew 6:33). You will only end up finding yourself further in the bondage of sin and death if you make these things your main focus and utmost priority in life in your search for deliverance.

The fundamental purpose of deliverance is not just for the sake of you having the natural things of the world. Indeed, even the Devil is able to give you a husband, fruit of the womb, lots of money and anything you want in the world as long as you are prepared to sell your soul to him. The utmost purpose of your deliverance from sins is so that you will be eternally free from the wages of sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). Seek God for liberty in Christ, so you can reconcile with the Holy Spirit of God and fulfil His spiritual purpose on earth to His glory. We are chosen to co-operate with God's regeneration process so, that He can align us to His perfect eternal life Will. Choose to co-operate with God's eternal Will for your soul today. Surrender your entire life unto Christ and He will surely set you completely free from every sinful covenant by the power of His blood. Amen.

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death” (Revelation 12:11).

Lots of Christly love from me to you.

THE WORD

TITLE: THE ONLY SOLUTION FOR SIN

BY - PASTOR OLABISI

Sin is transgression against God's spiritual laws: "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law."

—1 John 3:4

Sin as a transgression of God's law is a spiritual problem that can only be solved through divine spiritual means, not by physical means. God's entire divine solution for the sinful problem of mankind is in the form of the Person of Christ. Christ the holy Lamb of God came from heaven to the earth to fulfil God's righteous law of remission as the propitiation for our sins:

"The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

—John 1:29

Christ the holy Lamb of God is God's prove of His love for mankind.

"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another."

—John 4:8-11

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

—John 3:16

God's divine law of remission stipulates that without the shedding of the blood of an unblemished lamb, there can be no remission of sins:

"And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission."

—Hebrews 9:22

In the Old Testament of the Bible, God instituted a sacrificial system for the nation of Israel whom He chose to represent mankind.

THE WORD - THE ONLY SOLUTION FOR SIN: BY PASTOR OLABISI

The sacrificial system, which involved the shedding of the blood of animals as an atonement sacrifice for sins was only meant to serve as a type and shadow of what Christ, who is both the spiritual Lamb of God and the holy sinless High Priest manifested in the flesh had to do in order to fully place sin in total remission (Hebrews 10:1-39).

It is, therefore, no surprise that the blood of those animals neither remitted the spiritual sins of the nation of Israel whom God chose to typify the problem of the sinful nature of mankind, nor did it prevent the people from sinning continuously against Him.

The sinful problem of mankind is rooted in his inherent addictive, terrible nature of sin known as the "flesh." In order for sins to be fully remitted, the flesh, which is the gateway access of sins into man's spirit has to be crucified, and the blood of the unblemished Lamb that is necessarily required for the remission of sins must be a divine sinless one. Man of course, as a transgressor of the law who is deeply buried in the wages of sin, which is death, has no means of crucifying his own sinful flesh, let alone come up with a divine, sinless, unblemished, holy lamb that will be acceptable to God as a final perfect remission sacrifice for sins! God foreknew this very problem of man. This is why He preordained Christ from before the foundation of the world to be the unblemished Lamb who will come to the surface of the world to remit the sins of the world once and for all.

"And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world."

—Revelation 13:8

Christ as the holy Lamb of God fulfilled God's entire law of remission through His death on the cross of Calvary for the remission of sins. Through His subsequent resurrection from death as the resurrection and life itself, He paved the way for the repentant man to resurrect from the consequence of sins, which is death. Through His death on the cross, He also crucified the corporate body of sin, which is the flesh. And through His fulfilment of the remission law, He paved the way for man to receive forgiveness of sins from God.

We need forgiveness of our sins from God in order for the divine benefit of Christ's remission work to be activated in our soul. The divine benefits of Christ's remission work are (1) redemption from the death mankind acquiesced in due to the fall of the first man Adam into sin, (2) reconciliation with the Holy Spirit of God, and (3) inheritance of God's eternal life kingdom. Through Christ's finished work of remission on the cross, the repentant at heart can receive God's forgiveness for sins, resurrect from death, reconcile with the Holy Spirit of God and be in line to inherit God's eternal life kingdom.

Christ as the divine holy Lamb of God is a perfect spotless and sinless Lamb of remission. And as God's perfect Lamb of remission, He is the once and for all sacrifice for sins. Christ rendered the Old Testament sacrificial system obsolete through His finalization of our work of salvation on the cross of Calvary as the perfect holy Lamb of God. Those who are in Christ and reconciled with the Holy Spirit of God are no longer subject to the wages of sin and the consequence of sin, which is eternal death of the soul:

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." —Romans 6:23

In Christ alone can we have forgiveness of our sins from God and redemption from the consequence of the old Adamic sins, which is death:

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.”

—Romans 3:19-31

The sins of the world needed to be remitted once and for all through Christ's perfect work of remission, in order for God to also actively fulfil the promise He made to the patriarch Abraham, which was to make him a father of nations and to bless all nations through the fulfilment of the covenant agreement He made with Abraham:

“And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time, And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.”

—Genesis 22:15-18

God's covenant agreement with Abraham is a spiritual one and Abraham's real blessings and rewards under the righteous covenant God made with him, is God itself:

“After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.”

—Genesis 15:1

The subject matter of the covenant agreement God made with Abraham is Jesus Christ and the seal of the agreement is the blood of Jesus.

God symbolized Christ as the subject matter of the agreement with the ram shown to Abraham for him to sacrifice in place of Isaac who is the covenant child:

“And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.”

—Genesis 22:11-13

The ram that Abraham eventually sacrificed in place of Isaac represented Christ the unblemished Lamb of God whom God preordained from before the foundation of the world to die on the cross as the perfect sacrificial offering for sins for the complete remission of our sins. Through the finished work of Christ, God also paved the way for the outpouring of His Holy Spirit on every repentant soul from across the nations and not just on people from the nation of Israel:

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.”

—Joel 2:28-32

Christ as the only means of reconciling with the Holy Spirit of God also promised His disciples the Holy Spirit:

“These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.”

—John 14:26

“But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.”

—John 15:26-27

The Holy Spirit as promised by Christ and prophesied in Joel, came on the day of Pentecost. The coming of the Holy Spirit marked the beginning of the global manifestation of God's kingdom on earth through the Messianic body of Christ, which is the living church.

“And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.” —Acts Chapter 2

As a result of Christ's finished work of salvation, people from across the nations of the earth are now able to reconcile with the Holy Spirit of God if they repent from their sins and invite Christ into their lives to come and become their personal Lord and Saviour. From making it possible for mankind across the nations to reconcile with His Holy Spirit through the redemption blood of Christ Jesus, God through Christ's Messianic finished work fulfilled the righteous promise that He made to Abraham to bless all nations through him. Christ as the fulfiller of God's entire law of righteousness is man's only means of becoming a partaker of God's blessed promises to Abraham:

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil."
—Matthew 5:17

Those who have put on Christ as the righteousness of God manifested in the flesh are the only partakers of Abraham's real blessings and covenant reward, which is the Spirit of God itself

"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female:

for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

—Galatians 3:26-29).

Christ Jesus as the perfect last Adam is the only means by, which man can reconcile with God and inherit His eternal life kingdom as joint heirs with Christ Jesus who is His only begotten Son:

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

—John 3:16-17

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name"

—John 1:12

"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together."

—Romans 8:14-17

The blood of Jesus as the only blood that can completely wash away our sins and make us to be as white as snow, remains man's only means of securing total victory over the flesh, which is the nature of sins, death, which is the consequence of sins, the fallen world of sins and the entire gates of hell. Today, Jesus as the only solution for sins is calling you not into religion, but for you to come and be washed clean from your sins with His blood so that you can through His blood overcome the world and the consequence of sin, which is death. Answer His calling upon your life today so He can sprinkle His blood of victory upon your soul!

THE ONLY SOLUTION FOR SIN

There are no other means for having deliverance from sins, redemption from death, which is the consequence of sins, overcoming death and reconciling with the Holy Spirit of God to have eternal life in His everlasting holy kingdom except through the blood of Jesus Christ!

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death." —Revelation 12:11

Jesus did not come from heaven to earth to promise you religion. He came to make us the sons of God through His redemption blood so that we can inherit the everlasting kingdom of God as joint heirs with Him as the only begotten Son of God. Plead the precious blood of Jesus upon your soul today so that you can overcome all and be made eternally free from the condemnation of sins, which is eternal death of the soul:

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Pastor Olabisi

Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God."

— Romans 8:1-8

LORD my Jehovahjireh
You are pleasant in Your mannerisms
Wonderful in Your counselling
Divinely supreme in Your Self-existence
Marvellous in Your thoughts
Powerful in Your dominion Great and sovereign in Your authority and exceedingly majestic in Your reign
Mighty and victorious always in battle
Truthful in Your Word
Perfect in all realms and dominion

You are O Lord God the Almighty warrior and King of glory
You are everlastingly my All in all, King of kings, and LORD of lords.

Be exalted oh LORD above the heavens
Be glorified LORD God today
Be glorified in the heaven
Be glorified in the earth
Be glorified in my spirit
Be glorified in my soul
Be glorified in my mind
Be glorified in my heart
Be glorified in my body
Be glorified now
Be glorified my Alpha and Omega Jesus in me each day on earth and in all realms and dominion everlastingly!

Let those that have the living breath of the Holy God of Israel shout hallelujah! Amen!
Hallelujah and Hosanna to the King of kings, the Triune God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the everlasting God who reigns forever and ever as the Almighty King of glory. Amen.

EDITOR'S FINAL NOTES

The circumstances we find ourselves in this life are not coincidental. We are all here to learn the lesson of life in this journey called life. Our purpose here as children of God is to advance God's kingdom, and in order for us to fulfil this purpose, we need to make effective usage of the talents God has given us.

God has gifted each and every one of us with unique talents, which He intends for us to make use of for His kingdom advancement purposes. Interestingly enough, I have actually come to learn that it is right in the midst of our natural world challenges and frustrating experiences that God clarifies our purpose and activates the talents that we need in order to fulfil the purpose that He has mandated for our lives. In the midst of our frustrations, there are indeed new lessons to be learnt and new groundbreaking kingdom talents for us to discover.

Our walk with God is a walk of discoveries of, who He has made us to be in Him. Outside of the abilities of God, our natural abilities cannot generate a righteous outcome. Thus, when God allows our challenges, it is so that we can respond to His abilities in alignment with His divine Will for righteousness purposes. When we respond to God's ability, we do all things with a heart of responsibility and accountability towards God and not for vainglory purposes. When we do things for God's sake, God increases His might in us and enables us by His grace to do even much more than we can ever anticipate!

Whatsoever situation or circumstances you might possibly find yourself in, always remember that it is not a coincidence. Every challenging situation, is a talent discovery and talent activation opportunity.

Don't miss the opportunity of a new talent activation by focusing on the problems! Always keep your eyes focused on Christ Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:1-2). Through Christ, we can indeed rise above our human weakness and do all things through the effectual working strength of Christ to the glory of our Almighty Father (Philippians 4:13).

I give God the glory for all Freedom House Church members. You are all valued and appreciated. No matter the situation or circumstances, idleness and procrastination is certainly not an option. We must in all circumstances keep marching forward and continually trust in the LORD always to surpass our expectations. Be willing to be a doer of His Word always and do all things for His glory sake. Remain steadfast and always be of a good watch. To the LORD God our heavenly Father be all, power glory and honour everlastingly. Amen.

~Luke 1:37 "For with God nothing shall be impossible."

Much love
